

Employee Code of Conduct

EMPLOYEE CODE OF CONDUCT AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE POLICY

Policy Number: HR-2024-007
Effective Date: January 1, 2024
Applicable To: All employees, officers, directors, and contractors of GlobalVentures Corp.

1. CORE PRINCIPLES

All personnel shall act with integrity, honesty, and in compliance with applicable laws and regulations. This Code applies to all business activities.

2. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

2.1 Prohibition
Employees shall not engage in any activity, investment, or relationship that conflicts with the interests of the Company.

2.2 Disclosure
Any actual or potential conflict of interest must be disclosed in writing to the Compliance Officer within 14 days of becoming aware of the conflict.

2.3 Gifts and Entertainment
Employees may not accept gifts, entertainment, or hospitality from any business partner with a value exceeding $100 USD annually.

3. CONFIDENTIALITY AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

3.1 Confidential Information
Employees shall not disclose, distribute, or use confidential information except as necessary to perform their duties. Confidential information includes all non-public information that could harm the Company if disclosed.

3.2 Assignment of IP
Any invention, work product, or intellectual property created by an employee during the course of employment shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company.

3.3 Non-Compete
For a period of 12 months following termination of employment for any reason, employees shall not engage in any business that competes with the Company.

4. INSIDER TRADING

4.1 Prohibition
Employees in possession of material, non-public information regarding the Company or any business partner shall not trade in securities of the Company or its affiliates.

4.2 Blackout Periods
All employees with access to quarterly financial results are prohibited from trading Company securities during the period beginning 30 days before and ending 30 days after the release of financial results.

5. ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

5.1 Prohibition
No employee shall offer, promise, give, authorize, or receive any bribe, kickback, or improper payment, directly or indirectly, to or from any third party.

5.2 Facilitation Payments

Facilitation payments (small payments to expedite routine government actions) are strictly prohibited regardless of local custom or practice.

5.3 Third-Party Due Diligence

Prior to engaging any third-party representative, agent, or consultant who will interact with government officials, enhanced due diligence shall be performed.

6. REPORTING VIOLATIONS (WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY)

6.1 Reporting Channels

Employees may report suspected violations anonymously through the Company's Ethics Hotline (1-800-555-0199) or via the Compliance Officer.

6.2 Non-Retaliation

The Company strictly prohibits retaliation against any employee who reports a suspected violation in good faith. Any employee found to be retaliating against a whistleblower may be subject to disciplinary action.

6.3 False Reports

Knowingly making a false report is a violation of this Code and may result in disciplinary action.

7. SOCIAL MEDIA AND PUBLIC COMMUNICATIONS

7.1 Personal Social Media

Employees must clearly identify that their personal social media posts represent their own views, not those of the Company. Employees are prohibited from using the Company's name or logo in a way that could be perceived as an endorsement of the Company.

7.2 Media Inquiries

All inquiries from the media or investment community must be directed to the Corporate Communications Department. Employees are prohibited from making any public statements or disclosures without the prior approval of the Corporate Communications Department.

8. COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT

8.1 Training

All employees must complete Code of Conduct training annually. Failure to complete training may result in suspension of travel and other business-related activities.

8.2 Investigations

The Company reserves the right to investigate any suspected violation, including reviewing company-issued devices, email communications, and other records.

8.3 Penalties

Violations of this Code may result in disciplinary action, including written warning, suspension, forfeiture of compensation, termination, or legal action.

9. ACKNOWLEDGMENT

All employees must sign an acknowledgment confirming they have read, understood, and agree to comply with this Code. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action.
